PIETER BREUGHEL

THE ELDER (born c1525-1530 died 1569)

The greatest painter in the 16th Century of Dutch and Flemish Renaissance painting

The Peasant Wedding 1568 Kunthistorisches Museum Vienna

His landscapes and scenes of peasants of the ordinary day to day activities in village life were in great demand by his patrons, notably the wealthy Flemish Merchants. The peasant paintings in essence, show this affinity for his subjects in these extraordinarily detailed depictions of a way of life now gone but with people just the same as they are today.
